COMMUNICATION

We believe this is the most important piece of having a shared associate principal.

SCHEDULING

There are multiple models out there than can be successful, and there are pros and cons to each.

The two most common schedules:

1. Week on / Week off
2. Split weeks with alternating Wednesdays

SEPARATING RESPONSIBILITIES

Discipline

Associates shouldn't do it all

01

Committees

Common Responsibilities

02

Evaluations

Cannot do half at each school

03

Staff Meetings

Associates need to take on leadership

04

OVERLOOKED AREA – DEVELOPING FUTURE PRINCIPALS

P.D.

Associates can't wait for their district to take care of their PD

Hiring

Something associates need to be a part of

Budgeting

The first time a principal deals with budgets, shouldn't be when they get their own building

TIME MANAGEMENT

A split associate needs to be a master at time management. What can they do and how can a principal support them?
