

Addressing Exclusionary Practices in Early Learning

Stop & Reflect Protocol

Integrated MTSS Conference

August 1, 2024

#1 Know & Grow Knowledge Check

The Span of Early Learning is:
School districts are required to provide:
Exclusionary Practices in Early Learning is:

#2 Know & Grow Knowledge Check

State Educational Agencies and Local Educational Agencies Must Ensure That All Publicly Placed Children with Disabilities:
--	--

Washington Office of Superintendent of
PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

True or False: Discipline Provisions in IDEA Apply to Children with Disabilities Aged Three Through Five Who Receive FAPE In Preschool Settings.
--	--

Parting Reflections

Is your team/district currently using data to inform your practices at the district and classroom levels?
How could your system collect or use data differently to improve student outcomes through reducing exclusionary practices?

Resources:

- ECTA Center: Tools on Inclusion
- ECTA Center: Indicators of High-Quality Inclusion
- POLICY STATEMENT: Inclusion of Children with Disabilities in Early Childhood Programs \(Nov. 28, 2023\) - Individuals with Disabilities Education Act